Alan Lomax Empty Midget Tape Recording Cartridge, Model RL

[Description]

This midget tape recording cartridge comes in its original box with a note written by Alan Lomax - "Excellent - to be COPIED" - on the outside. Invented in the 1950's, Midget recorders were promoted as "The World's First Battery-Operated Tape Recorder," and are small enough to fit in the palm of your hand.

This particular cartridge was used on the road in Kentucky, Alabama, and Mississippi, to interview folk singer and Whitesburg native Ada Combs (pictured below), famous and influential progressive lawyer and writer Harry Caudill, a hitchiker, and to record a WEUP radio broadcast of DJ Daddy Cool.
